

Hi Beanstalks!

If you want to print out the Bean Pod* to look like a book:

1. Print out the pages (you might check the “reverse order” box when you print so the end product is a pile of spreads in the right order, with the cover on top, and the Calendar page right under it. Otherwise you’ll have to put the pages in order yourself.

2. Then take the cover page, place it face down on the table and put the stack (with the Calendar page being on top) on top of the faced-down cover page.

3. Staple in the corner, and fold in half like a booklet, and you’ll have the closest thing you can get to a booklet without using a saddle stitcher!

*If you want to save your color ink, you can print it in black and white.

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

by John Bewick, BBTC President

Hi, All.

We are definitely into fall now -- the leaves are covering my lawn. It is getting dark early.

There was very good news in October - both Marie and Stefan started new jobs!

Stefan's job is in New York, and he is moving. He promises / threatens to come back a lot and attend many events. There was a well-attended send-off party at Rick's Café in Randolph and then dancing at Vincent's. Fun was had by all.

We have several events coming up in November. The fall bird watching tour. Without the leaves on the trees it should be much easier to see the birds.

We are having a fall dance, the first fall dance in a while. I really hope to see lots of people there. It will be a lot of fun. Special thanks to Sylvia, Sue and all the others who helped make this happen.

Happy Thanksgiving to all.

JOHN

BBTC SECRETARY'S REPORT

By Kay Helberg 10/5/2009

Present: John Bewick, Kay Helberg, Marie Austin, Susan Huffman, Jeanne Smith, Kathy Lewis, Sue Flynn, Elaine Senay, Sylvia Martin.

Meeting called to order at 7:08 p.m.

OFFICERS' REPORTS:

President: Discussed the update of the proposed BBTC weekend. The Crowne Plaza Newton sent a contract for the previously discussed weekend of April 23rd. However, since Chicago has since changed their weekend date to 4/23, we will explore the weekends of April 9th and May 15th to check availability and price in relation to the previous quote. It was agreed that we did not want to do the same weekend as Chicago or the weekend immediately before or after in order to maximize the schedule for out-of-town travelers.

Scholarship: Kathy reported that there is nothing new in regards to the scholarship.

Vice President: Sylvia gave us updates on the two upcoming dances. She is presently exploring venues for a November 21st dance. We discussed the criteria for locations. Motion was made and passed that the club subsidize the dance. It was agreed that the cost would be $10 ahead of time and $12 at the door.

Anniversary Dance – exploring the dates of January 13th and January 30th. Will compare prices at the Crowne Plaza Natick and Crowne Plaza Newton – we discussed the pros and cons of both venues.

Social: Sylvia looking for indoor and outdoor ideas in the fall as well as shopping sprees and house parties.

Secretary: Kay stated that last month's meeting minutes were submitted to the Beanpod. However, the officers had not yet had a chance to read them as the newsletter had not been published at the time of the meeting.

Treasurer: Paperwork signed to transition signatures for the checkbook.

Webmaster: Jan not present – sent a report that the website has been updated, the Bean Pod was sent out and we are still looking for a new Webmaster! We also discussed getting more updated photos on the website if folks send them to Jan. It was also noted that we need to update the office email links for the website.

Membership: Marie reported that we had a good turnout at the Singles Expo in Rhode Island. Eight members worked the booth and we had some good interest in the club. Some of the members also attended the dance, the speed dating opportunity etc...

Editor: Jeanne was working on finishing the Beanpod. Submitted the calendar to Jan to get that out immediately so that members could see important dates.

Database: Craig not present. Sent an update on the status of renewals.

Webmaster: Jan not present – sent a report that the website has been updated, and we are still looking for a new Webmaster!

Delegate's Report: Marie reported that the delegates still have not received the updated proposals for the 2010 convention so that we can vote.

Social: Sylvia not present - sent an update of September events. Discussed the upcoming Singles Lifestyle Expo in Rhode Island and brainstormed marketing ideas for the event.

NEATO: Kay reported that there were no new NEATO events posted. Discussed the e-mail she had received surveying NEATO reps regarding the possibility of prohibiting Pushed or Protected events on Halloween weekend. Members had various insights into the pros and cons.

Delegate: Marie confirmed that New Orleans is the site of TCI Convention 2010 (June).

Publicity: Wini not present, no report.

New Business:

Elaine has been asked to serve as a Director of the TCI Foundation. She will be the liaison for the Boston and Atlanta clubs. She will be working with the BBTC to plan a TCI Foundation fundraiser once we raise the money needed for our local scholarship fund.

Meeting adjourned at 8:50 p.m.

SHELLED FROM THE BEANPOD

by Jeanne Smith, Bean Pod Editor

Hi, fellow Beanstalks.

Okay, folks, the mad, crazy dash from Thanksgiving to New Year's Day is about to begin. The to-do lists swell to unbelievable proportions. About fifteen years ago, I was riding the elevator up to my office, and one of the top guns in the firm said that he just plumb LOVED Thanksgiving – all there is to do is get up, watch some football, and then eat – spoken like a man whose mama & spouse had plumb spoiled him rotten.

Even though I've been going to the same friend's house for about a decade, I always try to do my part to fill in some portions of the meal. I'm so grateful that I don't have to roast a bird, I would be willing to do just about everything else. (Except maybe for the parsnips and turnips my friend serves – I wish someone would explain to me the purpose of those two vegetables, because they sure aren't on the table for their high taste value.)

Being still a relative newcomer to this band of tall folks, I'm still learning Beanstalks' folkways. One thing I've observed in the year-plus I've been coming to Beanstalk events – people in this club often become family to each other, not just friends. Maybe it's the years a lot of you have put into the 'Stalks; maybe it's the bonding that develops when you can look most people at Beanstalk events pretty squarely in the eye. (Don't you just hate it that, at so many holiday parties, you're forced to choose to curve your body into one long comma or to find the one chair in the middle of everyone else standing, so you can actually participate in the chatter?)

In your own mad, crazy dash through the holidays, don't forget to look forward to upcoming Beanstalk events, not just in November, but also in December and January. If you have a digital camera, be sure to bring it to 'Stalk events and pass those pictures on to me. We all like to see our pictures in print...uh, in digital/cyber format, so help me share the good times with everyone else.

I do hope that, wherever you are on Thanksgiving Day, you get to pile your plate high with all your Thanksgiving favorites and that you're surrounded by people you're grateful for and glad to be with.

Walk tall.

Jeanne

It's been some time since the BBTC hosted a dance. Well, due to popular demand, we are having a fall Harvest Dance! Greet your fellow Beanstalks and members of the public while dancing to great tunes.

This brand-new, beautifully appointed hall has hardwood floors throughout for dancing, a full bar, and plenty of parking.
